

Subhash Chandra Bose Chair on International Relations
School of Law, Governance & Public Policy,
Chanakya University

Call for Application for the position of Associate Professor

Position Summary

The Associate Professor – International Relations will play a key role in advancing the academic reputation of the school within the School of Law, Governance, and Public Policy. This position involves driving impactful research, contributing to the development and delivery of high-quality teaching in International Relations and related fields, and supporting the strategic goals of Chanakya University. The Associate Professor will work under the guidance of the Professor at the Subhas Chandra Bose Chair on International Relations. The role is also instrumental in mentoring junior faculty and fostering an environment of academic excellence.

About Chanakya University

Chanakya University, located in Bangalore, is an innovative global higher education institution established in 2022. Our mission is to serve society by providing outstanding education, fostering knowledge development, and making direct contributions to practical fields.

Click here to know more

Roles and Responsibilities

Academic Leadership:

- Contribute to the strategic development of international relations research and allied areas.
- Assist in shaping the vision and strategic plan of the respective school/university academic program.
- Conduct original research and advance knowledge in International Relations from an Indian perspective, considering its global implications.
- Mentor junior faculty and contribute to elevating teaching and research standards within the department.
- Foster a culture of academic excellence and collaboration.

About the Chair on International Relations

The Chair on International Relations, established under the School of Law, Governance & Public Policy at Chanakya University, aims to lead agenda-setting research on major sub-domains, thematic topics, regions, and methods in Indo-Pacific & beyond. It seeks to create a unique knowledge base of evidence-based research to invigorate India's rising trajectory in international affairs. By shaping India's point of view on emerging global priorities, the chair intends to build a foundation for the nation's new role drawing effectively on our civilisational heritage, historical experiences, strategic location, geography, demography & economy.

Click here to Know more

Teaching:

- Teach advanced courses in International Relations at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
- Develop innovative teaching methods to enhance critical thinking among students.
- Provide guidance and support to students and research scholars.

Research:

- Lead and contribute to significant research initiatives in International Relations and related fields.
- Publish research in reputable national and international journals and engage in interdisciplinary research projects.
- Collaborate with fellow researchers and faculty members on relevant projects.

Governance:

- Participate in developing academic programs and policies relevant to the Chair.
- Attend and contribute to departmental meetings and academic committees.
- Support faculty recruitment and professional development initiatives.
- Represent the department in university committees and foster effective communication.
- Build connections with academic and non-academic communities to enhance the university's reputation.
- Organise seminars, conferences, and workshops on international issues.

Qualifications Required

- Ph.D. or equivalent in International Relations or a related field with a strong research and publication record.
- Minimum of 5–7 years of teaching/research experience and practitioners.

Experience

- Demonstrated academic and research expertise in International Relations and/or related areas.
- Record of impactful publications.
- Academicians/practitioners with experience and expertise in IR and allied areas.
- Teaching experience at undergraduate and/or postgraduate levels.

Skills Required

- Effective leadership and organisational skills.
- Strong administrative capabilities.
- Ability to conduct and lead impactful research.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Capability to collaborate on interdisciplinary projects and engage within diverse academic communities.

Reporting Relationship

Reports to the Chair Professor of Subhas Chandra Bose Chair on International Relations, Chanakya University

Application Process

Interested candidates should submit the following

- A cover letter
- Curriculum vitae (CV)
- Statement of research philosophy and research interests
- Contact information for two professional references

Please submit your application to: careers@chanakyauniversity.edu.in

Note: The review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Personal data provided by applicants will be kept confidential and used for recruitment purposes only.

Deadline

The recruitment for the position is effective immediately and is open until November 15, 2024. This means that the selection will be rolling in nature.

Salary & Benefits

Salary and Benefits will be commensurate with the candidate's qualifications and experience.

Contact Information

For any further information on the Chair on International Relations at Chanakya University, please contact

- Prof. (Dr). Chetan Singai
Dean, School of Law, Governance and Public Policy
Member-Secretary, Subhas Chandra Bose Chair on International Relations
Email: chetan.s@chanakyauniversity.edu.in
Phone: +91 9483507705

For any information on the position and call, please contact

- Human Resource: careers@chanakyauniversity.edu.in
- Contact Person: Sri Sharath
- Contact No: +91 9513305644

School of Law, Governance and Public Policy

The School of Law, Governance & Public Policy, with an emphasis on integrating the local context with a global outlook, brings a unique blend of understanding law in the context of public policy. The School offers five-year integrated BBA LLB (Hons.) and BA LLB (Hons.) undergraduate programmes in a dual degree mode. It also has a one-year LLM programme specialising in Corporate and Business Law and a Chanakya Fellowship in Social Sciences (CFSS). The School also has a thriving doctoral programme in the fields of law, policy, and governance.

Click here to know more

