

Chanakya University Library

E-Resource Access Guidelines.

- Access to licensed e-resources, including e-books, e-journals, online databases, and other digital materials, is governed by the Terms & Conditions as per agreements between Chanakya University and respective publishers.
- These resources are strictly licensed for non-profit, educational purposes within the university community.
- Systematic downloading, distributing, or retaining substantial portions of information from e-resources is strictly prohibited.
- Forwarding electronic versions of articles or utilizing them for commercial purposes is not permitted.
- Sharing access credentials or enabling unauthorized individuals to access these resources is strictly forbidden.
- The use of these resources is also subject to copyright laws and individual license agreements. Users must adhere to these guidelines to ensure compliance and avoid legal consequences.
- Users can access these resources seamlessly within the campus through the university's LAN or Wi-Fi connection.
- Off-campus access to subscribed e-resources is facilitated through MyLOFT (My Library on Fingertips). Only authorized users can access it via MyLOFT.

Please contact library staff at the Circulation Desk for assistance and clarifications.